CROWD KILLS LIEBKNECHT IN GERMANY

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Jan. 17.—Dr. Carl Liebknecht was shot and killed while trying to escape as he was being taken to prison. Rosa Luxembourg, Dr. Liebknecht's chief lieutenant, was shot dead after being beaten into unconsciousness by a crowd at Berlin. The Government announces that punishment would be meted out if it appeared that the custodians of either victim had neglected their duty or had had any part in the tragedy.

ETHER FIRE DAMAGES STATE HOUSE

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Jan. 17.—A 5-gallon bottle of ether dropped on the floor accidentally resulted in a fire today in the food and drug laboratory on the 5th floor of the state house. The flames spread quickly about the room and one employee was so badly burned that he was sent to a hospital. Other employees extinguished the blaze before further damage had been done. The fire is supposed to have been due to the ether coming in contact with a test lamp.

Erzberger is reported to have asked when the blockade of Germany would be lifted, when German prisoners would be released and when the preliminary treaty of peace would be signed.

Paris, Jan. 17.—The question of Russia continues to be the one of most importance before the Supreme Council of the peace conference. The problem at present particularly concerns how and when Greece shall be represented before the conference. The opinion in conference circles is that he represented she must. The pulling of the information of the position of the various powers is expected to lead to the clearing up of the situation to some extent and substantial progress is hoped for from the further discussions which may be continued tomorrow. The position of the Council regarding publicity is considered as likely to be modified as it was believed with the assembling of the Council today the press would be admitted on Saturday to hear President Poincaré's speech before the full assembly. In such cases, however, the newspaper men would withdraw when the real business before the conference was taken up.

Amsterdam, Jan. 17.—The amicable relations between the allies and Germany have been extended, an agreement being signed by Matthias Erzberger, German Ambassador, and the Allies at Teyss late Wednesday, according to a Berne dispatch received here.

SOMETHING FROM THE ANTI-APPLE JUICE BRIGADE

Wants a Square Deal for the People; Says Cider Ugliest
Kind of a Drink.

The Anti-Cider League of New Hampshire has issued the following circular which is now in the hands of the members of the legislature with the title:

"Shall Hard Cider Be Lawfully Sold in Prohibition New Hampshire?" Present Prohibitory Law of New Hampshire, (the Lewis Bill) which was authored by the Anti-Saloon League, does not prohibit the sale of hard cider but specially exempts and allows hard cider, regardless of how much alcohol it contains or how intoxicating it is, to be lawfully sold for drinking purposes by the barrel. It also fails to prohibit the manufacture of cider for beverage use or to stop the sale of sweet cider (so called) for drinking purposes.

This special exemption for the traffic in intoxicating cider was made by the Anti-Saloon League, when the bill was drawn, as a sop to the farmers, in order to get the farmer vote in support of the State Prohibition Law in the last Legislature.

Now that that object is accomplished, every honest prohibitionist will favor striking out from the prohibition law this hard cider exemption because there is scarcely a single argument made against intoxicating liquor that cannot be made against hard cider. In fact hard cider contains in addition to its ever increasing and by the Lewis Bill nullified alcoholic content, acetic acid, which in addition to the damage done by the alcohol, dries up the blood and cuts away the tissues of the human body; and hence hard cider of a given alcoholic content is more injurious than any ordinary liquor of the same alcoholic content and produces the ugliest kind of a drink.

House Bill No. 10, drawn by the Anti-Cider League of New Hampshire strikes out from the Prohibitory Law this hard cider exemption; it prohibits the manufacture and sale of cider for beverage use. It does not prohibit the manufacture or sale of sweet cider for the purpose of making vinegar or for use as medicine or for eating or cooking purposes.

It does make an honest prohibition law and gives it square deal to all the people of New Hampshire.

It does for New Hampshire what National Prohibition will do for the nation, namely: prohibits by law all manufacture or sale for beverage use of all cider, hard or sweet.

The Anti-Cider League is not responsible for editorials or remarks, humorous or otherwise, which impugn its motives or for support of House Bill No. 10 from any source or reason whatsoever. It favors the passage of any bill, whether drawn by the Anti-Cider League or the Anti-Saloon League, provided it helps stop the traffic in intoxicating hard cider.

Anti-Cider League of New Hampshire.

WHAT MARVIN SAID IN SENATE

Wanted People to Have a Voice in the Matter.

During the debate in the New Hampshire Senate on the ratification of the prohibitory amendment, Senator Marvin, one of the minority members made the following address:

"Mr. President: 'This is not a matter of, do we want liquor, it is a matter that has to do with our personal rights. Shall the will of the minority be forced on that of the majority without their voice in the matter on what our people's customs are, on what they shall drink, on what they shall eat or wear?'

The constitution was drafted to give the people their rights, not to take them away. I did not vote for woman suffrage because I did not think the majority of the women of this state wanted it, and I believe it should be submitted to them to decide the question, as I do not believe in centralizing the people's power.

"I stand the same on this amendment. If the people want prohibition, submit the question to them and let them decide. 'The constitution of the United States has served us well for one hundred and thirty-two years and I do not believe the majority of the people wish us to change it.

"If the autonomy of Germany had been submitted to the people the question of the war today they would not be paying the penalty of foreign on the civilized world the greatest war in history."

A large was circulated in Boston a few days ago with a bottle of cider. If it was the same kind of cider that they sell around this town it was hard enough to dent the plates of a battleship.

THE BONE OF CONTENTION

A man goes into a store and buys a pair of shoes for $2.50. The storekeeper can't change the ten dollar note that he offers in payment. He asks a barber across the street to change the bill and the storekeeper then gives the man his shoes and $7.50 in change. Later the barber says the $10 bill is counterfeit and the storekeeper makes good the barber's loss. How much did the storekeeper lose?

Many of the people that are sending in answers to the "Shoe Puzzle" are so curious to find out the answer that they call in the office to find out when the answer will be published.

The answer to the little puzzle will be in Saturday's Herald. Many and varied are the solutions of the puzzle-fans. From no loss at all to estimates of thirty dollars the whole gamut is run every day.

Please do not send in answers on this puzzle after today, for a new problem will be submitted for your consideration tomorrow and the letters received after the answer is published cannot be printed in the Herald for obvious reasons.

I think the man who sold the shoes was out ten dollars. The ten he gave back to the barber.
The man who bought the shoes was in $7.50 and a pair of shoes.
The barber came out whole.

Puzzle Editor:

Dear Sir—The store keeper lost $7.50 and the shoes. He gave the man in change $7.50 of the barber's money, and he had $2.50 of the barber's money left. He had to take $7.50 of his own money to put with the $2.50 left from barber's money to pay him back.

KEEP URIC ACID OUT OF JOINTS

Tells Rheumatism Sufferers to Eat Less Meat and Take Salts.

Rheumatism is easier to avoid than to cure, states a well-known authority. We are advised to dress warmly; keep the feet dry; avoid exposure; eat less meat, but drink plenty of good water.

Rheumatism is a direct result of eating too much meat and other rich foods that produce uric acid which is absorbed into the blood. It is the function of the kidneys to filter this acid from the blood and cast it out in the urine; the pores of the skin are also a means of freeing the blood of this impurity.

In damp and chilly cold weather the skin pores are closed thus forcing the kidneys to do double work, they become weak and sluggish and fail to eliminate the uric acid which keeps accumulating and circulating through the system, eventually settling in the joints and muscles causing stiffness, soreness and pain called rheumatism.

At the first signs of rheumatism get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts; put a tablespoonful in a glass of water and drink before breakfast each morning for a week. This is said to eliminate uric acid by stimulating the kidneys to normal action, thus ridding the blood of these impurities.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is used with excellent results by thousands of folks who are subject to rheumatism. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink which helps overcome uric acid and is beneficial to your kidneys as well.

REACH AGREEMENT ON ATLANTIC HEIGHTS

Citizens Meeting With Emergency Fleet Officials and Some Plain Talk

There was a very candid expression of opinion as to the difference between the Mayor and City Council and the Atlantic Heights Housing project, or the Emergency Fleet, at the Public Conference on Thursday afternoon. It was gathering of the citizens and businessmen and members of the Board of Education and in the end the situation was greatly benefited from the candid talk delivered by the representatives of the United States Shipping and a representative of the Atlantic Corporation.

Both the Atlantic Heights Housing Project and the Atlantic Corporation had complaints to make of treatment by the city and as a result those that had any foundation in the city were moved as soon as possible others passed over.

The meeting was called by Mayor Hishop and he briefly stated that it was to consider the present contract between the city and the Emergency Fleet, which is financed by the Atlantic Heights Realty Company. There were some things that the city would like to change and he had called the meeting so that there could be a free discussion and so that representatives of the Emergency Fleet could be heard.

The first speaker was Mr. Arron, the representative of the Emergency Fleet, and the head of all housing projects. Mr. Arron made one of the most able talks on the subject of the housing proposition and its relation to Portsmouth that has ever been heard in this city. He showed a willingness to meet the city half way at the same time wanted to reserve for the government its rights in the project and to assure the housing project treatment at the hands of the city. He said that there were complaints by the men connected with the housing project and by the tenants of the Heights that they were not being treated fairly by the city. He read to the effect that later just read a dollar a room more at the 14th and there was an increase in the price of their groceries. He said that people living at the Heights had expressed that they were not a part of Portsmouth or entitled to the rights as other citizens.

He briefly sketched the history of the housing project and said that it had been seriously considered making the Heights a government reservation, which of course would be free from taxes and free from any rules or laws that Portsmouth could make, but it was decided that it was better to make it a part of the city and to have it absorbed by the city like any other section. He said that when the housing project was brought up this city was one of a great many, in fact far more than could be cared for with the government appropriation of $75,000,000, and the granting of the proposition to this city was due in a great measure to the liberal and co-operative manner in which the city council received the project and agreed to furnish the street work, sewers, water, and also the school.

He said the Atlantic Heights was considered today the best built and most completed of all of the housing projects of the government and it was a community that would be a credit to the city. In regard to the school house they had estimated that there would be between three and four hundred children and that a school house to take care of that number was necessary. They had met with the Board of Education, plans had been agreed upon, the foundation started, but now word comes from the Mayor that they would like to hold it up. He gave orders to that effect and said that he was willing to let the school house rest for the time, until it was proven whether their estimate or that of the mayor's was right. If it came to pass that by spring they were right and there were that number of scholars, then they would ask the city to provide the school. The present temporary school was all right for a small number of scholars but they would refuse to assume the responsibility of having the upper floors used as it was but a temporary office building.

The question of the city paying back the money advanced by the government to do the work agreed upon by the city in two years' time was a matter that could be easily taken care of. He was perfectly willing to advance it to ten years which would not be a hardship on the city. He payment of the taxes toward the debt was no more than fair, and he said that the government would be willing that the property pay its full share of the city expense, but only its share. Because it was a government proposition was no reason why it should be taxed more than other property of a like nature about the city. They simply wanted fair play.

He said that in regard to the Atlantic Corporation that was another matter, but he was greatly surprised to find that it had been advertised for a tax sale, and what was worse the little gossip that had started that because of this advertised sale that the shipyard was to be discontinued or sold for taxes. This would hurt the plant and he strongly objected to any such treatment on the part of the city.

Attorney Wright of the firm of Tyler, Ames and Wright, counsel for the Atlantic Corporation was the next speaker, and he said that he did not come with any olive branch, he considered that the Atlantic Corporation had a just grievance against the city, and openly accused the city of bad faith in the matter of the tax assessment.

He said that the city council had voted as it had voted other corporations, an exemption of taxes for ten years, in full for three years, 25 per cent for three years, 50 per cent three more, and 75 the last year. It was in the agreement on such property hitherto not exempt. He said there was a question as to the interpretation of this but they were willing to pass this, but the agreement was that the property was not to be taxed at more than it had been taxed the year before. They were dumbfounded to find that they had been assessed at $500,000 whereas the assessed valuation in 1917 was but $125,000. He could not see how the property could so increase in value in the few months they had it up to April 1, 1918, when the assessment was made. He said that they felt that they were not treated fairly and that the city had acted in bad faith or rather the assessors' department. They had not paid it and would or cannot allow the court to decide it. Mr. Wright was very blunt in his arraignment of the city.

Mayor Hishop called upon Mr. Hayton of the Shaking Fund Commission to answer Mr. Wright and he explained the New Hampshire law that no property once exempt from taxes could be given another exemption. He said that the assessors acted in good faith for the purpose of the property would have a bearing on the tax valuation and they were justified in making the figures what they thought were fair. He also explained that since 1917 an old exemption on some of the property had run out.

Mr. Arron said that he was confident that they would come to some agreement and that they were willing to waive the school house for the present, give a ten years' extension and allow that a portion of the taxes on the Heights be turned to the city to defray the municipal expenses of that section.

Mr. George H. McCarthy, a member of the school board, talked as a member of the Board on the school proposition and said that the Board felt that they should be released from the promise to erect a school on the plant. He inquired if it would not be just as satisfactory if the city erected a school house outside of the Heights and that the children of that section would not be required to walk any farther to school than other children.

Mr. Arron said that all they wanted was the same treatment that other school children got, but if it were erected outside of the Heights they could not advance the city any money on it. It must be in on the Heights if the money was to be advanced.

Mr. F. A. Belden spoke on the idea of building a school on the outside and Mayor Hishop said that they would be willing to be released from the school allowance, and if the growth demanded that the city would build one big school building in that section of the city that would take in the Franklin and part of the Spaulding district.

Chairman Sise of the Board of Trade said that it was the opinion of the business men that the matter be left with the Mayor to reach some amicable agreement with Mr. Arron and also with the Atlantic Corporation. At this time Mr. Wright had become more gracious and said that he had experienced a change of mind, while listening to the city's side of the case and he was confident that the city would be fair in regard to the corporation and promised to do all he could to make some agreement and settle the matter by agreement.

NEW SHIPPING POLICY IS ADOPTED

Paris, Jan. 17.—American shipping will be enabled to make rates in successful competition with other maritime nations and keep the sea open to the great business development expected with the end of the war under the provisions of a shipping policy adopted by the United States government.

Formulated by E. N. Hurley, chairman of the United States shipping board, after an extensive investigation, this policy, which has been officially approved, proposes to write off virtually $1,000,000,000 from the cost of American shipping built during the war and possibly a proportionate amount from the valuations of American shipyards. This write off according to the plan would apply to ships worth approximately $3,000,000,000.

It is expected that the moral force of the government in making such a reduction will bring privately-owned shipping to the open market. As all ships constructed in the United States during the war were built by the government the percentage of privately-owned shipping affected is small.

This reduction in shipping values to and after the war basis has been chosen in preference to reductions in wages. Officials were convinced, after exhaustive study, that one of these alternatives was necessary if the United States was to compete with foreign nations under the high standard established by congress for maritime labor.

RADICALS CONTROL LABOR CONGRESS

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, Jan. 16.—The extreme radicals seem to have actual control of the National Labor Congress called to protest against the sentence of Thomas Muoney and Warren Billings. The press, capitalists and A. P. of L. were condemned and every I. W. W. and Socialist doctrine was adopted. Speakers demanded that an American Soviet be formed. The climax came when the meeting picture of the Money case was shown and when the American flag and soldiers were seen they were booed by the radicals.

The committee today will get the report of the committee on resolutions and then adjourn.

ITALIAN CABINET HAS RESIGNED

(By Associated Press)

Paris, Jan. 16.—News of the resignation of the Italian cabinet has been received here. The resignations are due to the present crisis between Premier Orlando and Foreign Minister Sonnino, over the large territorial aspirations of the Foreign Minister and with no concessions to the Slavs. The Italian delegates to the Conference here are of the opinion that the resignation of the cabinet was forced when it became known that the United States representatives are not in agreement with the full demands of Italy.

(By Associated Press)

Ayer, Jan. 16.—The court martial of Captain Harry C. Harris of Brookline, charged with using government property, took a surprising turn just before it closed for the day, when Lieut. Maxwell Goldstein was called to the stand. According to Goldstein he failed to make a complaint of any irregularities to the intelligence officer at the camp or to Captain Harris, superior officer, but talked matters over with Judge Dewey of Boston and then telephoned the Northeastern department. This led the court to remark that it looked like a self-constituted secret service.

The Human Element.

The lesson taught by the accident Sunday morning on the New York Central Railroad near Batavia, N. Y., and emphasized by a very similar accident on the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad in Pennsylvania the next day, is that complete protection against danger can never be achieved through mechanical devices; that in spite of the excellence of these the human element is, in the last analysis, the most important of all.

Both of these accidents consisted in the telescoping of standing passenger trains by passenger trains that were following. In the crash on the New York Central twenty-one persons were killed and a number injured, and in the Pennsylvania accident nine persons were killed and a considerable number were injured, some of the injured dying on the way to the hospital.

According to published reports it would seem clear that there was carelessness somewhere in connection with these accidents, particularly the one in New York state. Where the accident occurred there the track is straight. There was a bright moon and it is claimed that the engineer should have been able to see the track a mile ahead. In addition to this the block signal was set against him, and a man from the standing train was sent back with a red light and torpedoes, and yet the train rushed on until within a few car lengths of the one ahead before the brakes were applied—altogether too late to prevent the awful crash that followed with such dire results. The conditions in the case of the Pennsylvania accident were almost precisely the same, except that a curve in the road there made it impossible for the engineer of the following train to see the standing train until he was well upon it.

Of course both accidents will be investigated with the purpose of placing the responsibility. But the great outstanding and disturbing fact is that they happened in spite of precautions that were deemed adequate. There were block signals, and in at least one case a flagman was sent back, but all to no avail. The crashes occurred as if there had been no rules or precautions of any kind.

It is not for this or any other newspaper to say where the blame rests. That will be determined by those whose business it is to sift the facts and ascertain the truth.

But that there was blame somewhere goes without saying, if the published accounts are reliable. There is something radically wrong when one train telescopes another on a straight track when it is no darker than it was last Sunday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock.

When the block signal was devised and applied it was believed there would be no further accidents of this kind, but there have been, and these two were not the first of them.

This is not to say that the block signal is not a good thing, for it is. But the truth that must be faced is that no mechanical device and no rules or regulations can guarantee safety in the face of lapses on the part of men in charge of the operation of trains. This has always been so and it always will be. And in view of this indisputable fact the wonder is that there are not more accidents than there are.

Horace Fletcher, the founder of "Fletcherism," which means the chewing of food exceedingly fine, is dead at the age of 82 years. It is claimed that he restored his wrecked health by practicing what he preached for years, he even carrying it so far as to chew his soup, according to accounts. Whatever the value of his prescription, it will have to be admitted that he lived to a ripe old age.

Governor Coolidge of Massachusetts recommends building activity as a means of keeping business going and making work for returned soldiers. But there are not many individuals who are prepared to spend money merely for the sake of making business and work. In most cases there has to be a further incentive.

Boston's poultry and pet stock show is in full swing, and is commanding the attention of fanciers in New England and other parts of the country. In exhibits of this kind there is a good deal that is of solid value in addition to the "frills" that go hand in hand with the fine "points."

A Vermont school boy is suing his teacher, a young woman, for $1,000 damages for alleged injuries sustained when she gave him what was in all probability a deserved thrashing. Unless the case is exceptionally aggravated it should not take the court long to dispose of it.

Rockland, Me., appears to be the headquarters of a "Jack the clubber."

FIVE MISSING IN BOSTON DISASTER

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Jan. 17.—Search for 5 men reported missing and believed to have been killed by the bursting of the 2 million gallon storage tank of molasses Wednesday on Commercial street in the North End, was continued last night with the aid of powerful searchlights and was still in progress today. Streams from hydrants and from a fire boat were poured into the cistern mass of molasses to assist in clearing it up. A careful survey of the damaged ruins resulted in an increase of estimates of financial loss. Today it was announced that the property damage would probably exceed $1,000,000.

PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

Voice From Ward Five

Editor:

I read in a local paper several days ago that there was more or less grumbling in Ward 5 and I say no wonder.

If all reports are true it appears that the harder the ward workers dig the less appreciation they have shown to them. Back in 1917 when the Democrats held sway at City Hall, they passed an ordinance to change Ward Five voting quarters to City Hall. This move was defeated by the Republicans of Ward Five. Even after the city solicitor threatened to jail the participants if they carried on the election at 25 Water street, but they stuck to the party and put it through, and at the last state election carried the ward and at the city election they turned the trick again. You all know the result, the city council about 7 to 2.

What happened?

Several candidates appeared for city places. One was elected. What became of the rest? Lost in the confusion you could hardly expect anything else. When a good Republican council (supposed to be) sits back and allows a Democrat to introduce a suggestion to prevent a Republican party worker from being elected.

Perhaps they won't need any votes to be re-elected in 1920.

WARD 5 VOTER FOR 5 YEARS.

CIGARS AND KIND WORDS FOR THE B. & M. TRAINMEN

Newburyport Train Crew Surprised by Shattuck Workmen.

Conductor William Davis and his crew of trainmen on the Newburyport train which carries the workmen to and from the L. R. Shattuck shipyard recently got two surprises which came to them in an address and presentation made by one of the foremen who worked them some at first about the conditions of their work which did not exist. Just as the trainmen were breaking away from their lineup near the yard restaurant grumbling over what they heard, the speaker changed his talk to the real thing and delivered many just compliments to the men for their many kind acts, strict attention to duty, neatness of train and their general work enroute. Besides the complimentary remarks the speaker took pleasure in delivering two boxes of cigars to each of the crew. Trainman Maurice Whalen in behalf of the crew replied to the presentation with a few appropriate remarks. It is evident that "Bully" Whalen's crew stands at with the Shattuck men and the Boston and Maine rule of treating the public with civility has been well observed.

IT IS TO LAUGH

The Herald the People's paper caught napping—yes really our old friend the Gas man—we mean the man that supplies the heat for the battery of hooties, did not deliver the goods on Wednesday and our operators could not produce—no, they could not get the slugs, and thereby hangs a tale of the loss of several news items that had to go over. Really it is funny our chief operator Wingate has applied salve to his lips so he can laugh at the claim of some one being "it" fifty years ago. Portsmouth is alive and bustling. The Herald is giving the news at the time. It may fall down once in a while but laugh with us. Join the boosters. The Herald welcomes a good joke even if it is on us.

NAVY YARD NOTES

Why Not Roll Them?

The men in Building 6 at the Charlestown yard believe they have some crack bowling team and are looking for match games. There is the chance for some of the teams of the local yard to show them something on the alleys.

Where Do They Put Them?

Five more ships are expected at the Charlestown yard within the next few days, among them being the Shawmut and Argosy, the old Dunker 100 and Massachusetts of the Eastern Steamship Line, which were converted into mine layers at the yard. There are now 40 ships of all kinds tied up at the pier. Ten of them are French mine sweepers.

Diplomas for Boys

Seven apprentice boys have received diplomas at the Charlestown yard, Capt. William H. Rush complimented each on his good work during his course. Lieut. A. A. Cathmann, head of the school, also had very encouraging words to say. The boys who were given diplomas were Frank O. Bernard, Albert E. Morrow and Francis J. Walsh, machinists; Thos. D. Brennan and Francis J. Jones, electricians; John C. Carroll, plumber and Patrick C. Sullivan, boiler-maker.

Surgeon Reed Detached

Lieut. J. V. Reed, U. S. N., medical corps, who has been chief operating surgeon at the U. S. naval hospital here, returns to his home in Indianapolis, Ind., on Monday, accompanied by his family. He has been released from further active duty. He came to the yard in March, 1918, and has made hosts of friends. He is recognized as one of the ablest men ever on duty here and in his home state is a professor of surgery.

Two in the Cell.

The Industrial Department sent out a call for eight helpers and two machinists today.

Tied Up at Flatiron Pier.

The former Morgan liner Bonaventure attracts much attention tied up at the Flatiron pier. The ship is something after the type of the U. S. S. Yankee. She will go in the dry dock as soon as possible for repairs. She shows very plainly the result of her collision across the ocean in the damage to her port side.

More Prisoners Going.

One hundred or more prisoners will leave the naval prison in a few days and depart for other stations where they will be restored to active duty.

Coming Over to Dance.

Several of the officers of the yard will attend the dance of the Country Club in this city this evening.

Prisoners Will Play

The prisoners' orchestra will hereafter provide music for the yard pleasure shows to be given each Monday Wednesday and Friday evening. The performances are for officers and enlisted men of the yard and are given in the men's reading rooms.

Chaplain Detached

Rev. John A. McCarthy of Manchester, recently appointed a chaplain with duty at the Portsmouth yard, has been detached and ordered to duty at the League Island yard, Philadelphia. It is understood he will be assigned to a receiving ship at that station.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR MR. & MRS. COMPTON JONES

About forty members of the Internal Revenue Service, from the office in this city, gathered Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Seth W. Jones, on Broad street, where a surprise and gift were tendered to Mr. and Mrs. Compton Jones, who were recently married in Kittery. The party was one of the most pleasant in every way.

Dr. and Mrs. Jones entertained the visitors in a very charming way and the graciousness and hospitality of Mrs. Jones were remarked upon by all who had the pleasure of attending. Dr. Jones presided in taking care of the men folk, especially so well that some were obliged to run to catch the last cars home. Games and music, including some very fine songs by Mr. Carroll, were enjoyed by all. The refreshment course lasted for the entire length of the party, the visitors declared, and it was one of the most "at home" parties that ever collected in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Compton W. Jones were presented an elegant silver set, engraved, which was offered to them in and appropriate and affectionate little speech by Judge Justin H. Shaw of the Internal Revenue office. No persons were ever more completely surprised at the whole proceedings than the recipients. Mr. Jones spoke splendidly in accepting the kindness of the friends assembled. Mrs. Dr. Jones was given a handsome collection of flowers.

ODD LADIES' CIRCLE ELECTS OFFICERS

The Odd Ladies' Circle held a pleasant all day gathering Thursday at the home of Mrs. Susie DeLano on North-west street.

The morning was devoted to sociability and an appetizing repast served at noon contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion. The menu included clam chowder, salads, hot rolls, pickles, assorted cake, honey pies, fruit jellies and coffee.

At the business session in the afternoon it was voted to have a food sale on Saturday Feb. 2. The following officers were chosen by the Circle for the year:

President, Mrs. Susie DeLano.
Vice President, Mrs. Lillian Marshall.
Secretary, Mrs. Roy Dixon.
Treasurer, Mrs. Sadie Cross.
Finance Committee, Mrs. Fannie Tolman, Mrs. Fannie Durwell.
Trustee, Mrs. Edith Somerville.
Cutting committee, Mrs. Edith Somerville, Mrs. Florence Wood.

Late in the afternoon the company left for their homes after thanking the hostess for her delightful hospitality.

A DISTINCTION

A garrulous attorney was arguing a case before a judge in Illinois, says a Philadelphia paper. He had rambled on in such a desultory way that it became very difficult to follow his train of thought, and the judge had yawned continuously once or twice.

Whereupon the long-winded lawyer with a trace of sarcasm, said: "I hope, your honor, I am not unduly trespassing upon the time of the court."

"My friend," observed the judge, "there is considerable difference between trespassing on time and encroaching on eternity."—Youth's Companion.

AMERICANS HUNT WILD GAME ON THE DWINA

With the American Forces in Dwina, the London, Jan. 17.—Wild turkey, ducks, grouse and big edible jack rabbits relieved during the autumn the monotony of bully beef and tinned stew in the mess halls of the American forces fighting the Bolsheviks on the Dwina. The Yanks are operating in a famous hunting country and most of them spent their hours of leave in shooting game. The few shot game available were in almost constant use and some of the soldiers developed almost manly manhood in bringing down ducks with their service rifles.

The marshy country is a duck's paradise, and there are thousands upon thousands of a quail-like bird called "chick." When the winter drives the ducks south there will be a hunt in the woods.

One of the billets where Americans are located at one river town was originally built as a hunting lodge for the late Emperor Nicholas who however was impractical before he had a chance to use it. Now, over the huge fireplace in the kitchen, the logs crackle under stovespots filled by the Americans' rifles.

ROCHESTER

MAGICIAN ENTERTAINED ENLISTED MEN

Freel Richard Davis of Boston, the magician who has made such a hit with the enlisted men in this vicinity the past week, is expected to make a return engagement in the not far distant future. He appeared under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. War Work Council.

At the Naval hospital on Saturday evening his performance greatly interested the men, among his audience being one patient who had been confined in the ward and unable to see any sort of entertainment for eight months.

Mr. Davis is more proficient in the art of magic and his audience watch his tricks with wonderment. On Monday evening he appeared at the Marine barracks at the navy yard, and on Tuesday evening at the Y. M. C. A. hall at 601 Constitution, New Castle, where he entertained the men at the Post and the officers and their families.

KEARSARGE LODGE INSTALLS OFFICERS

Kearsarge Lodge, N. E. O. P. held its annual installation of officers last evening at N. E. O. P. hall and the meeting was well attended and of much interest.

Deputy George P. Healey of Manchester was the installing officer, assisted by Grand Duke Richards of Goffstown.

The following were installed: Warden, Welden W. Schuman; Vice Warden, Amy E. Schuman; Secretary, Willie T. Lord; Financial Secretary, Charles W. Green.

Treasurer, Harry H. Foster; Chaplain, Cora E. Cook; Guide, Marion B. Greene; Clerical, William A. A. Cullen; Sergeant, Charles W. Preston; Trustee for three years, Willis W. Dunbar.

The delegates to Grand Lodge are Frank H. Melton, Charles W. Greene, alternates, Harry H. Foster, Amy E. Schuman.

Following the installation, remarks were made by Brother Healey, relative to the splendid condition of the lodge, stating that the reconstruction of the new rates two years ago, the order had been able to place itself in a perfectly solvent condition; which was gratifying to all present. The New England Order of Protection is a second to none anywhere as an insurance order, stories to the contrary notwithstanding.

At the close of the session a special fried chicken supper was served the lodge at a local restaurant, the menu including chicken, French fried potatoes, rolls, assorted pies, tea and coffee. It was 11:30 p. m. when the gathering dispersed after an evening of much social interest.

BEAUTIFUL HAIR THICK, WAVY, FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Draw a moist cloth through hair and double its beauty at once.

Save your hair! Dandruff disappears and hair stops coming out.

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—That's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after an application of Dandruffine. Also try this—moisten a cloth with a little Dandruffine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Dandruffine dissolves every particle of dandruff's elements, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Dandruffine is in the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, their exuberant, stimulating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

You can surely have pretty, charming luxuriant hair, and lots of it, if you will spend a few cents for a bottle of Knowlton's Dandruffine from any drug store or toilet counter and try it as directed.

PERPETUITY OF CHURCH AT YORK ESTABLISHED

Through the Will of Jeremiah McIntire.

Hildesford, Jan. 15.—Through the will of Jeremiah McIntire of York, which was filed before Judge Harry E. Ayer in the probate court, city building, Wednesday, the perpetuity of the First Congregational church in York is established. This is the church which was made famous through the pastorate of Rev. Samuel Moody, known during colonial days as Father Moody. It is reported of him that he appeared in this pulpit one Sunday with a black veil over his face, tradition having it that he had accidentally killed a friend and so absented his face from the rest of the world when ever he appeared in public. It was on that incident that Hawthorne based his story, "The Minister's Black Veil."

Mr. McIntire left an estate estimated at $50,000. In his will, Mr. McIntire first ordered the payment of all just bills against the estate.

To the York hospital, located in York, he bequeathed $20,000 to be invested by the trustees and the income to be used for the support of the hospital and for carrying on its work and general purposes.

To the trustees of the First Congregational Parish cemetery perpetual care fund of said York he gives $10,000, the sum to be invested and used for the care of the First Congregational Parish cemetery of said York.

All rest and residue is given in the First Congregational Parish of York, a corporation created and existing by law and located in York, in trust for the general welfare of the church and its upkeep.

In his will the testator reduces the fund for perpetual care of the cemetery from $10,000 to $3,050.

Accounts were allowed in the following estates:

Estate of Rita Warehouse, late of North Kennebunkport.

Guardian account in the estate of Mary Pennington of Kennebunk.

Guardian account in the estate of Bethina M. Haley of Kennebunk.

Alonso B. Hamilton, late of Hildesford.

Lizzie L. Clifford, late of Hildesford.

David B. Lettice, late of Hildesford.

Samuel Haines, late of Saco.

Katherine Wentworth, late of North Berwick.

Administration was granted in the following estates:

Estate of James H. Harris late of Kennebunk.

Clifton B. Hildreth, late of Manchester, N. H.

William E. Storer, late of Portsmouth, N. H.

John B. Littlefield, late of Kennebunk.

Gertrude L. Emerson late of Saco.

Zephaniah Harper, late of Hildesford.

NO EIGHT HOUR DAY FOR TEXTILE WORKERS

(By Associated Press)
Boston, Jan. 15.—Unanimous rejection by the cotton, woolen and silk textile people of the demands of the National Textile Union for an eight-hour day or a forty-eight hour week to become effective Feb. 23, was announced tonight by W. P. Shore, president of the National Association of Cotton, Wool and Silk Manufacturers. He said that the textile managers in all branches are unanimous in the belief that there can be no change in the working hours of present and at meeting resolutions were adopted rejecting the idea.

DRINK HOT WATER IF YOU DESIRE A ROSY COMPLEXION

Says we can't help but look better and feel better after an inside bath.

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning to flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as each when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incalculable material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy bloom in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, before putting more food into the stomach.

Men and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, are those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphate hot water drinking.

A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs.

CHANGE MADE IN TRAIN SERVICE

The governor and others who have interested themselves in better train service over the Concord and Portsmouth branch have succeeded so far in one change which will be in operation on Monday next when the 8:45 a. m. train from this city will run over the main line tracks of the Southern division from Haverhill to Concord and will arrive at Concord 5 minutes earlier. Another appeal to the railroad management concerns the leaving time of that train from this city in which petitioners request that it be put back on its old leaving time 8:30 a. m., instead of the present time of departure, 8:45 a. m.

CHANGE OF TIME.

Portsmouth Street Railway, Main Line.
7:00 a. m., 5:05 p. m. cars from Market Square connecting for Hampton Beach will be discontinued from this date.

5:05 p. m. car will go to Cable Road only or to Rye Beach Postoffice if there are passengers.
9:05 p. m. car will run to Cable Road excepting Saturday nights.

Plains Loop.
There will be two cars on Plains Loop via Middle and Islington street from 6:25 a. m. to 9:00 a. m. and from 12:00 noon to 2:00 p. m.; Saturdays 10:30 p. m.

SAGE TEA DANDY TO DARKEN HAIR

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

You can turn gray, faded hair beautifully dark and lustrous almost overnight if you'll get a bottle of "Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound" at any drug store. Millions of bottles of this old famous Sage Tea Recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, are sold annually, says a well-known druggist here, because it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that no one can tell it has been applied.

"These whose hair is turning gray or becoming faded have a surprise awaiting them, because after one or two applications the gray hair vanishes and your locks become luxuriantly dark and beautiful."

This is the age of youth. Gray-haired, unattractive folks aren't wanted around, so get busy with Wych's Sage and Sulphur Compound tonight and you'll be delighted with your dark, handsome hair and your youthful appearance within a few days.

TWO KNOCKOUTS AT BOXING MATCH

Two knockouts and a draw were the results of the fight before the Kennebunkport A. C. at Freeman's hall on Thursday evening. There was no real heavy fight, the main bout boys were without enough and slugged at will, but they lacked science.

In the preliminary Young Scott knocked out K. O. Nitz, both of the navy yard, in the fourth round of what was to be six rounds. They simply hammered each other until Scotty got in a haymaker.

Jack Brennan knocked out Young Tremblay in the first round of what was to have been a ten-round bout. These boys, both from the navy yard, have fought two draws and a good fight was to be looked for. Brennan, who is one of the cleanest looking and the most promising of the lads that have been shown from the navy yard, is a two hundred pounder and near the end of the round he caught Tremblay square on the jaw and he went down for the count. It was a clean knockout.

The main bout was in the position of Referee Cragen a draw, but the colored boy, Kid Green of Boston, apparently had considerable on Dusty Kroll of Bath. In the first of the fight he hit him at will, but his punches apparently lacked the proper stuff to stop Kroll, who stayed to the last. In the last two rounds it was just rush and punch with little science displayed other than Kroll's ability to duck Green's straight left. The decision was however agreeable to the crowd.
